Leuthold, Beighle, Bogut Only Prexy Candidates on Ballot; Anderson Joins Fun

Norman Anderson, Chinook, will enter the Aber day primary elections as a write-in candidate for ASMSU president, replacing George Boifeuillet, Missoula, who withdrew his petition Monday. Boifeuillet withdrew his candidacy because he intends to enter the Naval Air Cadets program this summer.

Jim Lucas, Miles City, was the last student to win an ASMSU office on a write-in ballot. Lucas was elected business manager in 1949.

Petitions of 87 students were validated by Central board for the primary elections. Competing for the top ASMSU office are Doug Beighle, Deer Lodge; Lionel Bogut, Glasgow; and Dave Leuthold, Billings.

The candidates for other ASMSU offices are: vice-president, Kay Hudson, Rapid City, S. D., and Dorothy Reeves, Butte; secretary, Phyllis Kind, Portland, Ore., Ann Fowler, Lewistown, and Alice Pledge, Great Falls; business manager, Don Chaney, Livingston, and Peder Hoiness, Billings.

ROTC MEN GETTING SHOTS

Typoid, tetanus, and smallpox shots were given ROTC men Monday in preparation for summer camp. These shots will continue for four Mondays, Health Service officials said.

Twelve Male Faculty 'Gals' To 'Can-Can' in 'Big Show'

BY MARY LOU HARRINGTON

Wearing ruffled skirts, halter tops, and flouncy hats, 12 "male" faculty members will be a main attraction of a Variety show at 1:30 Aber day, announced Show Chairman Marynell Curtis, Billings.

Faculty members who will take part in a can-can finale are Asst. Prof. James Dew, Prof. Edwin Briggs, Asst. Prof. Benjamin Frost, Prof. Andrew C. Cogswell, Dean of Students Herbert J. Wunderlich, and Maj. Charles Ray.

Maj. Edward Zeuty, Prof. Albert Helbing, Assoc. Prof. George Dahlberg, Placement Director Paul Chumrau, Editor of Publications Earl Martell, and Dean Jack Orr complete the list. The can-can will be accompanied by Don Staggs, Butte. Joyce Howanach, Belt, is in charge of costumes.

Ward Shanahan will be the master of ceremonies for the show, which will be followed by high court.

Trophies will be awarded the two groups presenting the best skit. The theme of the show is from the 1900s until the present day in the South Pacific.

Groups working together, and their chairmen are Phi Sigma

Kappa, Delano Lund, and Delta Delta Delta, Geraldine Mitchell; Synadelphic, Donna Border, and Sigma Phi Epsilon, Jim Durado; Theta Chi, Nick Wood, and Sigma Kappa, Sue Mann; Delta Gamma, Pat Strope, and Sigma Nu, Dick Dallas; Phi Delta Theta, Bob Dempster, and Alpha Phi, Alice Lee Hodges; Corbin hall, Bill Spurgeon, and New hall, Phyllis Bradbury; South hall, Jack Dunbar, and Jumbo hall, Kristine English; Sigma Chi, Bill Stong, and Kappa Alpha Theta, Lynn Jelinek; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Bob Jasken, and Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sally Stamm; and Alpha Tau Omega, Jack McFarland.

"Over 150 persons are working to put on this show and it's going to run fast and good with all types of entertainment to please all tastes," said Miss Curtis.

Skits are to be judged on originality, presentation, participation, and audience enjoyment, by the judges. Awards for the best skit will be made at high court.

"Each skit is limited from 7 to 10 minutes, and should not run over this time," Miss Curtis explained. Assisting Miss Curtis with the show are Anne Fowler, Kay Hudson, and Mary Ken Patterson.

'Campus Rakings' To Go on Sale

The gossip sheet of MSU, "Campus Rakings," published by Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalism fraternity, will be sold by Theta Sigs on Aber day, starting at noon.

Each living group is asked to pick someone to write articles for the booklet. This copy is turned in to the Theta Sigs, who guard it under lock and key. Campus Rakings is printed by downtown printers. Only a few chosen persons will see the copy before it is sold, and the editing is done by trusted Theta Sigs.

"Campus Rakings" is another tradition of Aber day that makes this day so looked-forward-to and a valuable part of traditions at MSU.

SX, Synadelphic Top Blood Donors

Sigma Chi and Synadelphic were winners of the intra-living group "blood letting" contest. Seventy-two and 63 per cent, respectively, of the Sigma Chi and Synadelphic members donated last Wednesday and Thursday.

Winners were chosen on the basis of percentage of total membership that donated. Theta Chi and Kappa Kappa Gamma were in second place, with 51 and 59 per cent, respectively.

Montana State college students will have a chance to beat the MSU total of 549 pints given last week, when the bloodmobile visits Bozeman this week. The winner has the honor of calling their campus the "bloodiest."

Schroeder Speaks On Advantages Of Small Agency

"The operation of an advertising agency provides a service that a business can't provide for itself," Mrs. Zelma H. Schroeder of the L. W. Wendt Advertising agency of Great Falls, told journalism students yesterday.

The lecture was the first of a series of three to be given by Mrs. Schroeder to journalism students. She will speak again Wednesday.

Simpkin's Curtain to Open At 8:15 Tonight; Moss Hart Comedy About Boston Play

Tonight at 8:15 is the opening of the Masquers' production of "Light Up the Sky," a comedy by Moss Hart about a theatrical group doing a new play in Boston. The play is directed by Stanley Hamilton, and will be in Simpkins Little theater.

The leading actress of the American theater and star of the play is Irene Livingston, played by Marjorie Lovberg, Missoula. Before the opening night of the play she has a gathering of the cast in her hotel room. At the party she makes everyone give a toast to the new show. If one refuses or the toasts are interrupted the show will be a flop.

Carlton Fitzgerald, played by Gordon Travis, Mobridge, S. D., believes that in order for the show to be successful he must give the leading lady a talisman which should be a relic belonging to a famous actress. He got his talisman from a pawn shop.

Forsaking his policy of staying out of the legitimate theater, Sidney Black, portrayed by Jack Shapira, New York, decides to back the new play by a truck driver. He insists that the marquee of the theater be lighted all day before the opening, otherwise the play will fail.

The truck driver playwright, Harold Hansen, Rexford, has great visions of his future success, before the play opens. Helen Hayes, Missoula, is portraying Sidney's wife, who was once a professional ice-skater.

Miss Lowell, Irene's secretary, is DiAnne Stephens, Billings. She is the ghost writer for the actress's so called autobiography.

A valuable character in the play is a parrot, which is doted upon by the actress's mother, who is an old "show horse" from way back. The mother is played by Pat Koob, Bozeman. She believes that if the parrot is stopped talking at any time the show will be a failure.

Guests of the theatrical group at the Ritz Carlton hotel are played by Jack Howell, Helena; Tom Needham, Ronan; Ronald Richards, Missoula; and Thomas Kilpatrick, Laurel.

Acting as agents of good will and fellowship, which is needed after the show fails, are a few Shriners on convention. The Shriners spreading good cheer are William Hertz, James Roberts, Butte; Robert Zarr, Great Falls; and Richard Sherman, Shelby. Edward Focher, Ballantine, is a plain-clothes man. Sven, Irene's massager, is Fred Ely, Great Falls.

Despite the various safeguards some of the characters use to insure success of the new play by the truck driver, it is a miserable failure. Comical situations develop after this as the true color of each character is revealed in the dilemma.

LAW SCHOOL ASSOCIATION MEMBERS ELECT OFFICERS

Officers were elected recently by members of the law school association.

Officials include Arne Huppert, Livingston, president; Myles Thomas, Helena, vice-president; Bill Morse, Absarokee, secretary; Glen Drake, Billings, treasurer; Dale Johnson, Missoula, sergeant-at-arms; and Louis Forsell, Helena, student loan fund.

Aber Day's History Shows Secrecy Comparatively New

BY JOAN KILBURN

Many things have changed since the first Aber Day in 1915. When Aber Day was started by the student body in honor of William A. "Daddy" Aber, professor of Greek, it was not kept a secret.

The goal of the first Aber day was to build tennis courts, a baseball diamond, and to generally beautify the campus. "Daddy" Aber for many years before this took it upon himself and whoever would help him to clean the campus in the spring.

In the beginning Aber day was devoted mostly to cleaning the campus. The only entertainment was a dance in the evening.

Even though things have been added and some taken away, the purpose of Aber day is still the same. It is still the day MSU honors "Daddy" Aber by cleaning the campus and making it ready for spring.

This year a variety show has been added to the day's many events. A trophy will be given to the winning women's living group and one to the men's for the best act. It will probably become an Aber day tradition along with the greased pig race, started in 1949, and the other games which are so vital now.

M club will once again punish girls wearing lipstick and hair ribbons.

Eleven o'clock hours will be given the women students. The tardy sleepy-heads and the delinquents on clean-up will be punished in High Court, along with pranksters caught throughout the year.

Clean-up will be judged after lunch. Trophies will be awarded to the women's and men's living groups doing the best job. A special effort was made this year to make the work details as equal as possible.

Awards Are Presented at Matrix Table

A $50 scholarship and four awards were presented to outstanding University women by Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism fraternity, at Matrix table in the Florentine Gardens at the Florence hotel, Sunday.

Muriel Griffin, Missoula, received the $50 scholarship for sophomore women doing outstanding work in journalism. An award was given to an outstanding girl in each class, chosen on the basis of scholarship and service to the University.

Virginia Van Horne, Wallace, Ida., received the award for the outstanding freshman woman. Mary Calvert, Great Falls, received the sophomore award; Jane Valentine, Conrad, received the junior award; and Beverly Henne, Butte, received the senior award.

Mrs. Mary B. Clapp, assistant English professor, presented Miss Catherine White, assistant librarian, with a corsage in recognition of her service to the University and the publication of her book.

The guest of honor, Mrs. Alice Frein Johnson, Washington, D. C., correspondent for the Seattle Times, discussed the new administration in Washington. Mrs. Johnson also told about press conferences and the reporters' reactions to the Republicans. From here Mrs. Johnson went to Seattle where she will speak at the Matrix table there.

Dorothy Rochon Powers of the Spokane Spokesman Review, a 1943 MSU graduate, was toastmistress. Miss Karen Whittet, Miss Montana of 1952, played the piano at the dinner.

Remember Who Holds The Trump Card . .

Today's the day to have fun! That's what "Daddy" Aber wanted it to be. That's what Dean Wunderlich and Bob Graves want it to be. That's what everyone wants Aber day to be—a day of "fun." The factor that has made this Aber day one of the most controversial of all 38 is that we can't agree on "what's fun."

Although Dick Bibler didn't realize it, this cartoon epitomizes the current problem involved in today's Aber day. What one faction may consider excellent, another group may abhor. Bibler's cartoon is applicable also because it depicts the two groups at odds, a segment of the students, and a segment of the faculty.

The cases in point today will be High Court, Variety show, number of students on campus, and any "incidents" that may or may not occur. The eyes of interested faculty members will observe all campus activity and some off-campus actions. If what they see is pleasing to them, there will be no organized agitation for an abolishment of Aber day.

If what occurs on this campus today is not morally and ethically correct in the eyes of some faculty members, a motion will be presented in a future faculty meeting to abolish the "Day." Although it may not seem democratically correct for the faculty to control the future of Aber day it nevertheless it a truism. With that in mind it would be well for collegians today to remember that the faculty holds the trump card.—B.J.

This Kaimin is dedicated to the collegians with insatiable curiosities who have driven Bob Graves and the M club berserk during the past 36 hours.

Organ Recital In SU Today

Eight music students of Mrs. DeLoss Smith will present an organ recital in the Student Union auditorium at 3 p.m. today.

The program will include "Lento" by Reincke, played by Pat Thomas, Missoula; "Forest Vespers" by Johnston, played by Georgiann Strange, Stevensville; "Priore a Notre Dame" from "Suite Gothique" by Boellman, performed by Betty Barbee; and "Sonata in C Minor, Opus 56" by Guilmon, performed by Virginia Rowe, Coeur d'Alene, Ida.

"Intermezzo" from "Sonata in A Minor, Opus 98" by Rheinberger will be played by Carol Coughlan, Missoula; "Praeludium Festivum, Opus 40" from the "First Sonata" by Becker, will be played by Nadine Genger, Fairfield; two chorale preludes, "Pastorale, and Canzonina" by Purvis, will be performed by Gladys Lewis, Twin Bridges; and "Passacaglia and Chorale" by Elert will be performed by Virginia Balkovetz, Twin Bridges.

Hummel-Abel Recital Slated

J. George Hummel, pianist, and Paul Louis Abel, trumpeter, will present a joint recital tonight at 8:15 p.m. in the Student Union auditorium. Abel will be accompanied by Rudolph Wendt of the music school faculty.

The program will range from a piano solo by J. S. Bach to a trumpet solo, "Concerto in A flat Minor" by Bernard Fitzgerald. The soloists will play works by Goeyens, Haydn, Schubert, and Brahms.

Hummel, a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music, received his master's degree at Teacher's college, Columbia university. He gave private lessons in New York City before coming to Montana, and also served as director of the 513 Air Force band in the United States and Europe.

Abel, instructor of brass and wind instruments, came to MSU in 1950.

Track Mentor . . .

HARRY ADAMS

Harry Adams, for seventeen years track and field coach at MSU, won his first meet of the season, 73-58, Saturday afternoon against BYU. He is preparing the Grizzly thinclads for a meet with Utah State here May 2. Coach Adams graduated from Montana State University in 1921 after a collegiate career in track, football and basketball. He was a member of a mile relay team that once held the world's record. Besides his outstanding record in athletics, Adams was an honor roll student. Coach Adams proved that he is a thorough and capable coach by developing such track men as Dick Doyle, who won the National Collegiate and National AU discus championships in 1950 and 1951. Other products of Adams' tutoring were such stars as Jack Emigh and Ole Deland in the sprints and middle distances and Al Eiselein and James Seyler in the hurdles and jumps. During off seasons, he is a backfield coach, head scout for both football and basketball and assistant athletic director. He served in World War II as a colonel under Gen. Frank Milburn, who is now retired and serving as athletic director at MSU.

Highly Touted BYU Falls Before MSU Track Squad

BY BOB CHESNOVER

The Montana track squad defeated highly-rated Brigham Young Cougars, 73-58, Saturday on Dornblaser field in a Sky-line upset. The Cougars have been rated by many observers as one of the stronger teams in the conference.

The Grizzlies took an opening lead when Jack Luckman pushed the shot put 46 feet 4 1/4 inches to win that event.

In fact, the Grizzlies were strong in all weights events Saturday. Hal Maus and Neil Hunter placed first and second in the discus. Maus' winning throw was 132 feet 3 inches. In the javelin throw Hal Utsond and Ed Stocking dominated, with their best throws of the season. Utsond threw the javelin 176 feet 7 inches and Stocking 175 feet 7 inches.

In other field events George Tarrant won the pole vault with the standard at 12 feet 2 3/4 inches. Doug Delaney and Skip Weishaar of the Grizzlies and Don Oscarson and Bill Meadows of BYU tied for second at 11 feet 6 inches.

In the mile run Bill Rife set a new record for Dornblaser field with a time of 4:17.

Leoni Conner of the Grizzlies and Ray Brown, BYU ran a close 440 but Conner had a little more spurt left at the end to win by half a step in 50.3 seconds. Don Hal-version of the Grizzlies took third.

Marv "Speed" Reynolds took the 880 yard run in 2:02.8 minutes. Reynolds trailed BYU's Paul Anderson most of the race. He caught Anderson on the last turn and sprinted on to win by three yards.

The most surprising result of the afternoon was the race won by Dick Lindsay in the 120 high hurdles. Lindsay turned in a time of 14.8 for his best performance on the highs and bettered his old record by nearly a second. Coach Adams was surprised and pleased.

Dick Fuenning, BYU sprinter, was the only double winner of the day as he won the 100 and 220. Fuenning ran the 100 in 9.8 and the 220 in 22.3 seconds.

Grizzly Net-Men Defeat Geiger Air Base, 7-1

The Grizzly net-men won an unexpected victory Friday when they defeated Geiger Air base, 7-1. "We thought they would be a lot better team than they were," said tennis Coach John Moody. He added that the boys had improved greatly since the last time they were in competition.

Thomas Fike defeated Dick Fletcher 4-6, 6-2, 6-3, for Geiger's only win. Pete Densmore won over Arland Brizil 11-9, 2-6, 6-2, Park Densmore beat Tom Lian 6-3, 5-7, 6-3, Dick Solberg over Maurice Nardone 6-1, 6-2, Jim Ryan defeated Bob Gourdy 6-0, 8-6, Dick Crist also played a match against Bob Gourdy and won 6-4, 6-3.

In the doubles matches Pete Densmore and Dick Solberg defeated Brizil and Lian 3-6, 6-2, 7-5, and Dick Fletcher and Park Densmore defeated Fike and Nardone 6-0, 6-2.

This Saturday at 10:30 the Grizzly tennis men go into action against Utah university.

Grizzlies Trample Utah State Aggies

The Montana Grizzly baseball team boosted its conference record to four wins and two losses when it swept both ends of a double-header from Utah State 11-8 Saturday. The games were played at Pocatello, Ida., because of water on the Utah diamond at Logan.

A six-run outburst in each game produced the two victories for the Grizzlies. They pushed half a dozen runs across in the first inning of the opener and duplicated that feat in the third inning of the second game.

Sororities Honor Initiates; Scholarship Awards Given

Alpha Phi and Kappa Kappa Gamma honored winter and spring quarter initiates at annual initiation banquets last week.

Mollie Iler, senior, Missoula; Peg Tofte, junior, Williston, N. D.; and Dian Giulio, sophomore, Helena, were given scholarship awards at the Alpha Phi banquet April 12 in the Missoula hotel. Each girl received a sterling spoon.

Mrs. Lucille Armsby was given a sterling bud vase for her years of service to the local chapter. Gloria Tinseth, Billings, read the senior class will.

Winter quarter initiates are Rosemary Aker, Kalispell; Pat Boehme, Glasgow; Donna Brown, Havre; Helen Davis, Thompson Falls; Mary Doherty, Missoula; Patricia Goldbrand, Chowchilla, Calif.; Alice Hodges, Great Falls; Janice James, Kalispell; Patricia Kauppinen, Deer Lodge; Marilyn Morris, Helena; Louise Ralston, Brockton; Bobette Reeder, Whitefish; Norma Slaughter, Long Beach, Calif.; Janice Welch, Whitefish; and Ann Woods, Missoula.

Kappas honored initiates at a banquet April 12 in the Florence hotel. Betty Barbee, Butte, was awarded the alum bracelet given to a junior active in scholarship, activities and service. Nan Hubbard, sophomore, Missoula, was given the alum ring as a similar award. Carol Kronmiller, Billings, was honored for being the most "active" in the house. Mrs. Frank Hazelbaker, Kappa housemother, was given a bouquet.

Freshmen entertained with a skit imitating graduating seniors.

Eight girls were initiated into the active chapter April 11. They are Kristine English, Helena; Mary Ellen Erickson, Aberdeen, S. D.; Artha Eustance, Great Falls; Marilyn Gunkel, Missoula; Joan Hill, Whitehall; Dorothy LaZarus, Helena; Mary Helen Pemberton, Broadus; and Georgiann Strange, Stevensville.

National President Feted by Sorority

Delta Gammas entertained their national president, Mrs. Russell Wildosin, Dayton, Ohio, at an active-alum buffet supper April 10.

Mrs. Wildosin spoke on national projects and activities of the sorority. Marjorie Lovberg, Missoula, gave a reading of "The Man on My Right." Lyn Erb, Billings, sang two numbers. Shirley Leffler, Forsyth, played piano selections.

North, Sigma Nu, DG, Sigma Kappa Exchange Dinners

Sigma Nus entertained 25 North hall girls at an exchange dinner Wednesday evening.

Tom Needham, baritone, Ronan, sang. The Sigma Nu quartet, composed of Arnie Huppert, Livingston; Miles O'Connor, White Sulphur Springs; Ward Shanahan, Miles City; and Don Schaff, Walkerville, entertained.

Sigma Kappas and Delta Gammas also had an exchange dinner Wednesday night.

Junior Sponsors Selected for 1953 Autumn Quarter

Eight sophomore women have been selected as junior sponsors for North hall next year, Miss Harriet Miller, head resident, announced yesterday.

Those chosen were Pat O'Hare, Stevensville; Arlene Hollinger and Joanne Guilbault, Missoula; Gwen Gholson, Burke, Ida.; Nan Hubbard, Missoula; Joan Brooks, St. Ignace; Davis Watson, Deer Lodge; and Mary Calvert, Great Falls.

"The job of the junior sponsors is chiefly orientation," Miss Miller explained.

"They will serve as officers for the hall for the first month and a half of fall quarter, work as corridor chairmen and advisers of various committees, and help freshmen work out study schedules.

Only Time will Tell...

HEY, THAT WAS SOME BEAUTIFUL DOLL I SAW YOU WITH!

BEAUTIFUL... AND INTELLIGENT! BROTHER, THIS TIME IT'S LOVE!

LOVE UNDYING! LOVE TILL THE END OF TIME! WOW!

HOW CAN THEY TELL SO SOON? HE JUST MET HER LAST NIGHT!

Only time will tell about a new love! And only time will tell about a cigarette! Take your time...

Test CAMELS for 30 days for MILDNESS and FLAVOR!

THERE MUST BE A REASON WHY Camel is America's most popular cigarette—leading all other brands by billions! Camels have the two things smokers want most—rich, full flavor and cool, cool mildness... pack after pack! Try Camels for 30 days and see how mild, how flavorful, how thoroughly enjoyable they are as your steady smoke!
